Swissôtel Chicago and WTMX 101.fm "The Mix" Join Together to Provide Travelers a Musical Getaway

(Chicago) - Swissôtel Chicago and WTMX 101.9fm recently unveiled "The Mix Musician's Suite" offering guests an opportunity to experience a musical getaway atop the 40th floor of the hotel. The newly themed suite offers guests a unique and luxurious experience with musical enhancements to accompany the breathtaking views of Lake Michigan and Navy Pier, stated Joseph Violi, general manager.

"The Mix Musician's Suite" provides 2,200 square feet with one and one half bath offering a unique two-story living space with dramatic views of Lake Michigan and Navy Pier. In addition, the bedroom overlooks the parlor area, which features a large executive desk, dining room table for six people, fax machine and wet bar. The suite is decorated with autographed memorabilia, artwork from local artist Brian Heckle, and gold and platinum records by artists heard on WTMX 101.9fm "The Mix". A variety of CD's is also available for the guests listening pleasure during their stay. The suite is available from a rate of $900 per night. For reservations call 1-888-737-9477.

Swissôtel Chicago offers 632 luxuriously oversized guestrooms and suites and 32 meeting rooms, which can accommodate up to 500 people. The all-glass triangular hotel, wedged into the confluence of the Chicago River and Lake Michigan has fabulous wrap-around views from Navy Pier to Grant Park. Designed by noted Chicago architect Harry Weese.
