The Winning Couple:

Jennifer Green and Thomas Lorek Jr., Elgin Residents

The thoughtfulness expressed through the engagement, while beautiful, is only a fraction of the amount of care and kindness Tom and Jennifer share. On December 7, 2005, Tom and Jennifer ventured out for dinner to their favorite restaurant, it just so happens to be the same restaurant that hosted their first date. Although it was the day before her birthday, Jennifer didn't suspect anything magical would happen that evening. On their way home, Tom began to make comments about festive Christmas decorations, and then made a sudden turn onto a residential street near a park. The park was filled with Christmas lights and a large gazebo, which was decorated with a tree and lights. Tom and Jennifer got out of the car to admire the decorations in the gazebo, and that's where Tom got down on one knee. He declared his love of Jennifer and of their relationship. He then turned Jennifer around so she could see the parks sign which read, "I love you, Jennifer! Will you marry me? Tom" Jennifer cried happy tears and said, "YES!" To speak to either of them, it's obvious this is a union of soul mates. Having met online, Tom and Jennifer joke it was "love at first type." Forever the romantic, Tom declared that while it would be wonderful to win the wedding, he's already won the most wonderful woman in the world, and for that he is grateful.
